

Dr. Mari Ann Callais (Ca-lay)

INTRODUCTION

[Mention Program Sponsors]

Out of respect to our speaker and our audience, please take this time to set your cell phone to silent alert or to OFF. Thank you!

Mari Ann Callais has worked in higher education for 16 years, and most recently served as an Assistant Professor at Mississippi State University. Professionally, she is the Director of Development The Center for Tri Delta and speaker for CAMPUSPEAK. She has also held the position of NPC Delegate and National President for her sorority, Theta Phi Alpha. She has presented more than 500 workshops on fraternity and sorority values, student leadership, team building.

Mari Ann holds an undergraduate degree in Political Science from Loyola University New Orleans, a Masters of Education, and a Doctorate in Educational Leadership and Research at Louisiana State University. She has been presented several awards through the years, which include the Sigma Sigma Sigma Greek Advisor of the Year, Theta Chi Outstanding Greek Affairs Professional Award, and received the Southeastern Interfraternity Conference Advisor of the Year Award twice. She was recently awarded the Association of Fraternity Advisors Distinguished Service Award and the highest award that Theta Phi Alpha bestows on a member called the Guard of Honor. Please join me in welcoming, Dr. Mari Ann Callais.